

Green Hammerton Recreational Charity

Safeguarding policy

Thank you to Community Action Suffolk for their support in creating this policy.

1. Purpose

Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and adults at risk from abuse or neglect.

This policy defines how Green Hammerton Recreational Charity operates to safeguard children, young people and adults at risk of abuse or neglect.

We have a duty of care and are committed to the protection and safety of everyone who enters our premises or hires our field including children, young people and adults at risk involved as visitors and/or as participants in all activities and events. We also have a duty to safeguard and support our trustees, volunteers and staff.

2. Definitions

Children and young people are defined as those persons aged under 18 years old. This policy will apply to all staff, contractors and volunteers and will be used to support their work.

Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children is defined as:

- protecting children from maltreatment
- preventing impairment of children's health and development
- ensuring that children grow up in circumstances consistent with the provision of safe and effective care
- taking action to enable all children to have the best outcomes.

Adult at risk of abuse or neglect

For the purposes of this policy, adult at risk refers to someone over 18 years old who, according to Section 42 of the Care Act 2014:

- has care and support needs
- is experiencing, or is at risk of, abuse or neglect
- as a result of their care and support needs is unable to protect himself or herself against the abuse or neglect or the risk of it.

If someone has care and support needs but is not currently receiving care or support from a health or care service, they may still be an adult at risk.

Persons affected

- all trustees, volunteers, and staff
- all those attending any planned activity or service that is being delivered from the GHRC hall and playing fields
- all visitors and contractors.

3. Policy principles

There can be no excuses for not taking all reasonable action to protect children and adults at risk from abuse or neglect. All citizens of the United Kingdom have their rights enshrined within the Human Rights Act 1998. People who are eligible to receive health and community care services may be additionally vulnerable to the violation of these rights by reason of disability, impairment, age or illness.

GHRC has a zero-tolerance approach to abuse.

GHRC recognises that under the Care Act 2014, it has a duty for the care and protection of adults who are at risk of abuse. It also recognises its responsibilities for the safety and care of children under the Children Act 1989 and 2004.

Green Hammerton Recreational Charity is committed to promoting wellbeing, harm prevention and to responding effectively if concerns are raised.

Green Hammerton Recreational Charity is aware of the work of the North Yorkshire Safeguarding Partnership <https://www.safeguardingchildren.co.uk> and other support organisations on the development and implementation of procedures for the protection of children and adults at risk. The policy is about stopping abuse where it is happening and preventing abuse where there is a risk that it may occur.

Green Hammerton Recreational Charity trustees are committed to the following principles:

- the welfare of the child, young person or adult at risk is paramount
- all children, young people and adults at risk have the right to protection from abuse
- safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children is everyone's responsibility - Everyone who comes into contact with children and their families has a role to play - for services to be effective each professional and organisation should play their full part; and
- all suspicions and allegations of abuse must be properly reported to the relevant internal and external authorities and dealt with swiftly and appropriately
- at all times, it is important to act in what is in the best interests of the child.
